My dear

When I saw Jack
Sunday he was wearing one of his dress shirts, which they have to wear to dinner & on Sundays - but I had forgotten to get the links etc, & the mother had gotten a link here & and there
different kind
so he had two off and for a stick pin she had put in a lady's fancy headed pin and for a tie clamp had fastened the tie down

with an ordinary pin So Monday I got him a set - Thinks, pin & clamp - and put in a metal-backed knife - (which no one will take away from him) -
I could see his eyes shine when he opened the box.
Could you imagine
them shine as they did six yrs ago. Well they are like that now

most all the time.
I had hoped he would write me today or yesterday that he had them but he has not written a word so far. They won't let a letter go out unless it is in just the proper shape, they told me. As soon as he writes will send it.
They have a dance next
wk. and all the boys have pumps for that & dress shoes for dinner.
But I think his dress shoes will do. His chum Edwin.

is a "Stanford" boy so Jack says he is for Stanford too - not U of C.
Edwin is the son of a wealthy lumber dealer in the city. His cousin had a birthday party last wk & Jack wanted to give her one of his new hdkfs, but the mother fixed it up so his feelings were not hurt - it was all he had to offer.
    If you can find that other military brush, wish you would send it - as this is just worn out & he needs a good one -
Wed PM   Hastily KMH
